Further comments based on 159 responses: Brilliant school, lovely teachers. I love this school and so do my children. We are happy with the improvements our children have made. We appreciate all the staff in this school. I cannot complain one bit, the school does everything beyond for me as a parent and for my children. The staff have really made a positive impact in the life of my children. The Head Teacher and Deputy are wonderful. I would recommend this school to anyone looking for a school. Thank you so much for all that you do. I am so happy. We appreciate all of your efforts in looking after the pupils. Well done OLSE, everything is improving for my children, please keep it going. My child loves coming to school. A lovely school, thank you for everything you do for our children. Please can we have some more diverse afterschool clubs. A very supportive staff team. The school is always exploring new ways to work and support parents. The school provides a robust all round upbringing for the children, well done OLSE team. The school offers a good education for all. I like how the school is involved with the parish and community. I would strongly recommend other people to this school.
