I am very grateful for all the teachers do and that my child has been accepted into this school. I am very satisfied with all the activities school provides. I fully love and appreciate what you do for my children. I wouldn't change anything. I think the school is brilliant. Thank you everyone for your hard work and support. My son is very happy at this school. Dismal at the end of the day is hectic. Can we be included in more school activities? Thank you so much for providing after school clubs, you have saved my life!! I would 100% recommend this school to everyone. My child is so different from when she joined, keep up the good work. Absolutely recommend this school to others. There are not enough words to mention how grateful I am for your support, kindness and love you show towards my son. Thank you for being so amazing, for everything you do and have always done. Thank you very much for everything! 100% thank you. I am very happy with OLSE. I would appreciate if you could consider some holiday clubs during the school holidays. You are all fantastic so thank you very much!
